

Consignment Opportunity - Aircraft Parts, Equipment, Tooling & Material - Sell Your Excess Parts with KADEX Aero

Convert your excess material into cash with a consignment at KADEX Aero. Do you have legacy material from projects or aircraft that are long gone? Do you look at book value and sigh then wish to convert your asset to cash? Consider a consignment with KADEX. Free up storage space for your next priority or project. Free up your time - Leave parts selling activity to us so your time is better directed where you see fit or on your core business activity. We can handle this activity on your behalf - Your parts are inspected, catalogued, separated, segregated, stored in an environmentally controlled warehouse, secured, insured, accessible for your visit at any time. We report to you promptly and regularly on all sale activity, sale price and material listings or as you would like. Payments are sent promptly. If certain minimum selling prices are necessary you establish all these controls.

We will establish your service costs (percentage of sale price) up front and clearly before we move forward. The lower dollar value items such as expendables are set at higher % rates moving to high dollar values such as components at lower % rates then to engine, props and equipment at even lower % rates. Improvement costs incurred by KADEX to enhance a sale are deducted after the sale is completed.

Immediate marketing of your parts is a priority - Once your material is inspected and listed we market immediately on ILS, Parts Base, Controller, KADEXaero.com and direct mail. This gets a world-wide exposure 24/7/365 to 30,000 subscribers. We monitor activity at all times, in the evening and on weekends, to seize any opportunity as it presents itself. We understand a long vs short sell cycle.

Why KADEX - Experienced, capable, organized, trusted and reliable with asset remarketing.
